119TH CONGRESS 1ST SESSION S.

To support Taiwan's international space, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

Mr. VAN HOLLEN (for himself, Mr. CURTIS, and Mr. KIM) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on

A BILL

To support Taiwan's international space, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-

2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the "Taiwan Allies Fund5 Act".

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress makes the following findings:

8 (1) Taiwan is a free and prosperous democracy
9 of more than 23,000,000 people and an important
10 contributor to peace and stability around the world.

 $\mathbf{2}$

(2) The People's Republic of China has engaged in a years-long campaign to diplomatically isolate Taiwan on the world stage.

4 (3) Since 2013, the Gambia, São Tomé and
5 Príncipe, Panama, the Dominican Republic, Burkina
6 Faso, El Salvador, the Solomon Islands, Kiribati,
7 Nicaragua, Honduras, and, most recently in 2024,
8 Nauru have severed diplomatic relations with Tai9 wan in favor of diplomatic relations with the Peo10 ple's Republic of China.

(4) The People's Republic of China has used economic and diplomatic intimidation against countries pursuing unofficial relations with Taiwan, including Lithuania, Czechia, and the United States.

(5) The Taiwan Relations Act of 1979 (Public Law 96–8) states that it is the policy of the United States "to maintain the capacity of the United States to resist any resort to force or other forms of coercion that would jeopardize the security, or the social or economic system, of the people on Taiwan".

(6) The Taiwan Allies International Protection and Enhancement Initiative (TAIPEI) Act of 2019
(Public Law 116–135) states that the United States Government should—

1	(A) "support Taiwan in strengthening its
2	official diplomatic relationships as well as other
3	partnerships with countries in the Indo-Pacific
4	region and around the world"; and
5	(B) "consider, in certain cases as appro-
6	priate and in alignment with United States in-
7	terests, increasing its economic, security, and
8	diplomatic engagement with nations that have
9	demonstrably strengthened, enhanced, or up-
10	graded relations with Taiwan''.
11	SEC. 3. SENSE OF CONGRESS.
12	It is the sense of Congress that the United States
13	Government should—
14	(1) advocate, as appropriate, for Taiwan's pres-
15	ence on the global stage, including at international
16	organizations;
17	(2) promote the preservation and expansion of
18	Taiwan's official diplomatic relations with countries
19	around the world;
20	(3) expand Taiwan's unofficial relations with
21	countries around the world;
22	(4) encourage countries with unofficial relations
23	with Taiwan to deepen their engagement; and
24	(5) advance the economic development of coun-
25	tries that support democratic partners like Taiwan.

1 SEC. 4. TAIWAN ALLIES FUND.

2 (a) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—Of the
3 amounts made available under the Countering PRC Influ4 ence Fund for each of the fiscal years 2026, 2027, and 5 2028, there is authorized to be appropriated $40,000,000
6 for each such fiscal year to support Taiwan's international 7 space.

8 (b) ELIGIBLE COUNTRIES.—Amounts available pur9 suant to the authorization of appropriations under sub10 section (a) may be used in countries that—

(1) maintain official relations with Taiwan or have meaningfully strengthened unofficial relations with Taiwan;

14 (2) have been subject to coercion or pressure by 15 the People's Republic of China due to their relations
16 with Taiwan; and

17 (3) lack the economic or political capability to 18 effectively respond to such coercion or pressure by 19 the People's Republic of China without the support
20 of the United States.

(c) USE OF FUNDS.—Amounts available pursuant to the authorization of appropriations under subsection (a) may be used to support any of the following activities in the countries described in subsection (b):

25 (1) To support health initiatives that provide26 alternatives to the Health Silk Road.

2	society, media, and other nongovernmental organiza-
3	tions in countering the influence and propaganda of
4	the People's Republic of China.
5	(3) To diversify supply chains away from the
6	People's Republic of China.
7	(4) To provide alternatives to People's Republic
8	of China development assistance and project financ-
9	ing.
10	(5) To advance Taiwan's meaningful participa-
11	tion in international fora and multilateral organiza-
12	tions.
13	(6) To work with the private sector to provide
14	United States or allied alternatives to People's Re-
15	public of China information and communications
16	technology infrastructure and components.
17	(d) LIMITATION ON FUNDS.—A country described in
18	subsection (b) may not receive more than $$5,000,000$ of
19	funds made available pursuant to the authorization of ap-
20	propriations under subsection (a) during any fiscal year.
21	(e) Implementation.—
22	(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of State, in
23	consultation with the Administrator for the United
24	States Agency for International Development, the
25	Director of the American Institute in Taiwan, and the heads other relevant Federal agencies, shall co ordinate and carry out activities described in sub section (c).

4 (2) AUTHORITIES.—Amounts available pursu-5 ant to the authorization of appropriations under 6 subsection (a) may be considered foreign assistance 7 under the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (22) 8 U.S.C. 2151 et seq.) for purposes of making avail-9 able the administrative authorities in that Act and 10 may be transferred to, and merged with, funds made 11 available for any provision of the Foreign Assistance 12 Act of 1961 to carry out the purposes of this sec-13 tion, except that such funds shall remain available 14 until expended.

15 (3) COORDINATION WITH TAIWAN.—In order to 16 maximize cost efficiency and eliminate duplication, 17 the Secretary of State, in consultation with the Ad-18 ministrator for the United States Agency for Inter-19 national Development, should work with the Director 20 of the American Institute in Taiwan to ensure co-21 ordination with relevant parties of Taiwan, as appro-22 priate.

(4) COST-SHARING WITH TAIWAN.—The Secretary of State should convey to relevant parties of Taiwan, as appropriate, that Taiwan should con-

1	tribute commensurate assistance to countries de-
2	scribed in subsection (b).
3	(5) Report.—
4	(A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 1 year
5	after the date of the enactment of this Act, and
6	annually thereafter for two years, the Secretary
7	of State shall submit to the appropriate con-
8	gressional committees a report on activities de-
9	scribed in this section that were carried out
10	during the preceding fiscal year.
11	(B) ELEMENTS.—Each report required by
12	subparagraph (A) shall include—
13	(i) with respect to each activity de-
14	scribed in subsection (c)—
15	(I) the amount of funding for the
16	activity;
17	(II) the goal to which the activity
18	relates; and
19	(III) an assessment of the suc-
20	cess of the activity to meet the goal to
21	which the activity relates; and
22	(ii) with respect to this subsection—
23	(I) the amount of funding for the
24	activity provided by Taiwan during
25	the preceding year, if any; and

DAV25473 NG7

8

1	(II) an assessment of whether
2	the funding described in subclause (I)
3	is commensurate with funding pro-
4	vided by the United States.
5	(f) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this sec-

6 tion may be construed to apply to or limit United States
7 foreign assistance not provided using amounts available
8 pursuant to the authorization of appropriations under sub9 section (a).

10 (g) APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES
11 DEFINED.—In this section, the term "appropriate con12 gressional committees" means—

13 (1) the Committee on Foreign Relations of the14 Senate; and 15 (2) the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the16 House of Representatives.
